 - Continental breakfast: An assortment of pastries and beverages will be available during check-in. If you have severe allergies or special dietary needs, please plan to bring a suitable breakfast with you. We also encourage you to bring a snack if you get hungry prior to the conclusion of the event.
 - Introduction to an Arts & Sciences Education: This session provides an overview of the philosophy of an SAS education to teach you about your Arts and Sciences education and academic possibilities.
 - Sessions with academic departments: These faculty-led sessions provide an opportunity for you to meet with multiple faculty advisors to learn about our academic department, including majors/minors and special programs. Faculty advisors also provide more ideas for possible courses in the fall, including relevant FIGS, Byrne Seminars, and learning communities.
 - Exploratory Sessions: These sessions help you pull together all of the information you've learned and introduce ways to explore career interests at Rutgers and provide an overview of relevant academic resources.
 - Academic Planning meeting: Advisors from the Office of Advising and Academic Services, as well as faculty, staff, and peer advisors, work with you to request your Fall semester courses. Students in the EOF program, Honors Program, and Honors College meet with advisors from those programs.
